REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Dear Families,

Greetings from Anderson Mill Elementary, a student-centered and family-oriented school! As you may glean from the information contained in this report card, we strive to ensure success for all students. Individual student needs are carefully gathered in a variety of ways, such as formal and informal assessments, teacher observations, and anecdotal records. From the information and data gathered, our knowledgeable teachers prepare best-practice, experiential learning opportunities. A positive, high expectation for all learners sets the stage for optimum academic growth.

With the 2008-2009 school year, Act 282 was passed by our state legislators and included the new PASS (Palmetto Assessment of State Standards) for grades 3-8. This rigorous statewide assessment, aligned to our state academic standards, included tests in writing, English language arts, mathematics, science, and social studies. These assessment results indicate our teachers are effectively teaching and students are actively learning. Our integrated, hands-on learning approach has produced great results. We can see our students are better prepared at each grade level due to first-class instruction.

On behalf of the entire faculty and staff, I invite you to look closely at these assessment results and be proud that our school is award-winning in every way!

Children First!

Deborah C. Philbeck, Principal

Reverend Seth Buckley, School Improvement Council President
